Coming From Airport

There is only one (1) international airport at Bali called the Ngurah Rai International Airport. Depending on traffic, it takes about 30-45mins to reach the venue from the airport. It is common to be caught in heavy traffic in the Kuta area. So do avail yourself with sufficient time especially when you are leaving for the airport on your return trip.

As you come out from the Arrival Hall, there is an Airport Taxi counter on your right side (with proper signage). It costs about IDR250,000 for a 1-way trip to Grand Istana Rama Hotel. There are also many licensed (with a badge) freelance taxi drivers dressed in blue shirt (uniform) standing near the exit of the Arrival Hall waiting to offer their service to you. They charge about IDR200,000. You may negotiate it to be lower. Then, there are non-licensed freelance drivers dressed in common clothes ie. Touts that may approach you. They may charge between IDR200,000-180,000. If you are good, you can bargain down to IDR150,000! Tipping is not common/practiced but you are free to do so if you appreciate the driver's service.
